ANSWER: The Defendant, through his son, Nelson Rice, in the spring of 1973, after the Plaintiffs had planted a number of pine seedlings near the center of the raceway, informed the Plaintiffs that they had planted the trees on the Defendant's property. In 1965 or 1966, while the Defendant was cleaning the area along the raceway, the Plaintiff, Etta Mae Zoerb, contacted the Defendant and asked him not to damage any of the trees on their property and also told him that the smoke was bothering her asthma.
